

Mental Health Counseling Agencies in Sheboygan County

The following is a list of counseling agencies within Sheboygan County that provide outpatient counseling (which may include individual, couples, family, and group therapy options). These agencies may employ therapists, counselors, psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, and substance abuse counselors, among others, as mental health professionals and clinicians. Mental Health America in Sheboygan County (MHA) believes that professional treatment is beneficial and recovery is possible.

For a more detailed referral and consultation to a mental health professional (i.e. insurance requirements, financial needs, medication management, specialty area of expertise, etc.) or any other questions as to what types of services and resources are available for your mental health, please contact the staff at MHA (contact information found on the back side).

Recovery is possible. There is hope. Treatment works!

 Dynamic Family Solutions, Lakeshore Community Healthcare, and Ozaukee Community Therapies are currently the providers for United Way's school-based mental health PATH (Providing Access to Healing) program. PATH provides confidential licensed mental health therapists in participating Sheboygan County schools, removing financial and geographical barriers for students to access care. Inquire with your school counselor to see if the PATH Program is a possibility for your child.*
